II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, you may sue state or local officials for the "deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws]." Under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), you may sue federal officials for the violation of certain constitutional rights.

A. Are you bringing suit against (check all that apply):

☐ Federal officials (a Bivens claim)

✦ State or local officials (a § 1983 claim)

- B. Section 1983 allows claims alleging the "deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws]." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, what federal constitutional or statutory right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by state or local officials?

The Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution; Chapter 2921 of the Ohio Revised Code; the Crime Victims' Rights Act (18 U.S.C. § 3771); Ohio Constitution Article I, Section 10(a) and Marsy's Law as codified in the Ohio Revised Code; and other provisions of Federal and State law which will be enumerated upon entrance of competent professional representation.

- C. Plaintiffs suing under Bivens may only recover for the violation of certain Constitutional rights. If you are suing under Bivens, what constitutional right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by federal officials?

This particular action --- the first of many long-overdue actions to remedy grievous violations of the rights of the citizenry --- names as defendants local (municipal and county) elected officials in their individual and official capacities, sworn public servants in grievous violation of their oaths, government agencies, and offices.

- D. Section 1983 allows defendants to be found liable only when they have acted "under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, explain how each defendant acted under color of state or local law. If you are suing under Bivens, explain how each defendant acted under color of federal law. Attach additional pages if needed.

Plaintiffs incorporate by reference herein all written accounts, video, audio, photographic, and documentary evidence published online at www.AStrongCity.org, <http://YouTube.AStrongCity.org>, <http://Instagram.AStrongCity.org>, <http://Facebook.AStrongCity.org>, <http://Twitter.AStrongCity.org>, and <http://LinkedIn.AStrongCity.org> and more that will be public prior to trial.

This First Amendment digital content is hereby declared under penalty of perjury to be entirely truthful, factually accurate, and will be substantiated by eyewitness testimony. Much more such evidence will be made available to counsel, the parties, investigators, and Federal prosecutors.

Police have a duty to investigate, truthfully and accurately report, and criminally charge criminal offenses lawfully reported by citizens, and secure available evidence thereof, especially in cases such as these where admissible evidence is offered. Prosecutors have a duty to investigate, charge, and prosecute crimes they are made aware of. (In these cases, police blame prosecutors, prosecutors blame police, and both attempt to impermissibly shift the burdens of law enforcement onto victims and/or witnesses to the crimes.)

Municipalities, their Chief Executive Officers, department heads, and governing bodies have a duty to adequately train, supervise, oversee, and discipline their subordinates, including police officers. All of these officers and agencies have a clear duty to protect victims of and witnesses to crimes, ensure public safety, uphold the laws and Constitution, and fairly and swiftly administer justice. These defendants have failed, and continue to fail, miserably resulting in an ongoing endangerment to the citizens they are sworn to protect and serve. In addition, they are criminally complicit in serious high crimes and misdemeanors wherein they refuse to enforce the law.

III. Statement of Claim

State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant was personally involved in the alleged wrongful action, along with the dates and locations of all relevant events. You may wish to include further details such as the names of other persons involved in the events giving rise to your claims. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

A. Where did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?

The municipalities of Columbus, Ohio, and Dublin, Ohio, within Franklin County, in the State of Ohio.

B. What date and approximate time did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?

The underlying crimes and criminal conduct of the defendants named herein occurred between March of 2021 through present (July 2, 2024). These violations have proven to continue until such time as the unlikely event that defendants choose to begin performing their mandatory duties fairly, consistently, and without discriminating on unlawful basis, or when this Honorable Court intervenes and remedies the gross misconduct and other criminal violations which will be proven at trial, whichever occurs first.

C. What are the facts underlying your claim(s)? (For example: What happened to you? Who did what? Was anyone else involved? Who else saw what happened?)

Plaintiffs were individually and as a corporate citizen victims to, and suffered injuries and damages as a direct result of, dozens or more of brutally violent atrocities and other crimes against property, including attempted murder, sexual assault, kidnapping, unlawful restraint, robbery by force during the commission of other felonies, theft of an automobile, theft, breaking and entering, entering without breaking, vandalism, destruction of property, fraud, harassment, retaliation of a State's witness, and civil rights violations by individuals, and also employees of corporations clearly identified, known, and duly reported to the defendants with evidence more than sufficient to establish probable cause for criminal arrest and prosecution.

Plaintiffs were then further victimized, repeatedly, by the defendants' egregious failure to protect, wanton disregard for crime victim rights, civil rights violations, gross misconduct, criminal dereliction of duty, and other acts and omissions causing injury and property damage which is punishable under the Ohio Revised Code. Civilly liable and criminally culpable are a shocking number of officers and civilian employees of the Columbus Division of Police, attorneys employed by the Columbus City Attorney and Franklin County Prosecuting Attorney's offices who have been deliberately indifferent or outright refuse to perform their duties to prosecute reported criminal conduct including threats, retaliation, and intimidation of witnesses/victims, and by the chief executive officers who ignore their subordinates' crimes and dereliction, utterly failing and continuing to fail, refusing to perform their duties to properly train, supervise, oversee, and discipline staff and leadership after being made aware of the criminal misconduct too many times.

IV. Injuries

If you sustained injuries related to the events alleged above, describe your injuries and state what medical treatment, if any, you required and did or did not receive.

Plaintiffs have incurred substantial physical, emotional, psychological, and spiritual injury, tangible damages, and financial loss as a result of the defendants' reprehensible conduct and refusal to take appropriate remedial and supervisory action.

Personally, Rev. Dr. Andrew D. Wenmoth has suffered from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, Major Depressive Disorder, Generalized Anxiety Disorder, Bipolar Disorder, and other debilitating conditions which prevent him from even a minimally reasonable quality of life and enjoyment thereof since being brutally attacked many times over the span of months, then stabbed three times in 2021, and the resulting trauma of not being protected physically, having his property violated without lawful recourse, and then learning the only felony case prosecuted out of the terroristic crime spree was dismissed by the Franklin County Prosecuting Attorney's office and Franklin County Court of Common Pleas in clear violation of his rights as crime victim, based upon the perjured testimony of two (2) Assistant Prosecutors alleging that he was not cooperating when, in actuality, the defendants were well aware he was undergoing treatment for the injuries sustained and still highly traumatized from the horrific violence.

As a result of the defendants' appalling failure to carry out their obligatory duties, left severely traumatized and utterly without support or humanitarian aid by their offices or crime victim/witness "assistance" units, Plaintiff was forced into human trafficking conditions that caused him to contract HIV. This would not have happened had defendants exercised their duties to fairly enforce the law and render the same aid and services to Plaintiff as promised to other victims of crime. Plaintiff has been transported to hospital emergency departments dozens, if not more than a hundred times because of defendants' actions and omissions, and continues to suffer horrendously daily.

All defendants have violated the Plaintiffs' rights as victim of and witness to crime, causing additional injury and damages. These egregious violations are criminal and Plaintiffs insist as citizens of the United States of America that they be prosecuted as such.

In addition, Plaintiffs rights under the Americans with Disabilities act have been and continue to be violated by these defendants.

V. Relief

State briefly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If requesting money damages, include the amounts of any actual damages and/or punitive damages claimed for the acts alleged. Explain the basis for these claims.

Plaintiffs request EMERGENCY INJUNCTIVE RELIEF requiring the defendants to protect his person, the corporate entity, and their property from further crimes, abuse, harassment, and intimidation.

Plaintiffs further request a PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION issue requiring the defendants to perform their Constitutional and statutory duties to fairly administer justice without delay, including promptly and fully investigating crimes diligently reported by Plaintiffs, and others not documented by police due to negligence and demonstrated futility; to immediately charge and arrest the known perpetrators of said crimes to prevent additional harm to Plaintiffs and endangerment of the public; and to prosecute such offenses to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act and other provisions of law which may apply, Plaintiffs respectfully move the Honorable Court for the reasonable accommodation of APPOINTMENT OF COMPETENT COUNSEL to protect and safeguard their substantial liberty and property interests during the course of these proceedings, and to aid Plaintiffs in developing, fully and fairly litigating this matter to ensure the Constitutional right of access to the Courts, to petition the government for redress, to equal protection under the law, and to due process.

Plaintiffs request an award of PUNITIVE AND COMPENSATORY DAMAGES in an amount to be specified with the advice and assistance of appointed counsel, and that all COSTS AND EXPENSES for these and related proceedings be assessed to the defendants.

VI. Certification and Closing

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, by signing below, I certify to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief that this complaint: (1) is not being presented for an improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation; (2) is supported by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law; (3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and (4) the complaint otherwise complies with the requirements of Rule 11.

In Jesus' Mighty Name and in the significant interest of Justice... Amen.

A. For Parties Without an Attorney

I agree to provide the Clerk's Office with any changes to my address where case-related papers may be served. I understand that my failure to keep a current address on file with the Clerk's Office may result in the dismissal of my case.
